St. Louis, July 23 .- Monday will go on record as the hottest day in St. Louis up to date.

At 11 o'clock the mercury stood at of two degrees an hour.

At noon it registered 105 degrees, and gradually climbed to 107 by the official thermometer, while street readings showed as high as 110. The heat belt covers a radius around timost the central point.

About three o'clock in the afterpoon St. Louisans experienced a reritable hot wave, lasting several minutes. It seemed as though the floors of the nether regions had been thrown open and a hot blast emitted that seemed to almost blister everything it came in contact with. As on Bunday, night brought little relief. and sleep was almost out of the question. The protracted hot spell is havlng a depressing effect, and much illness, especially among the aged, is re-

AT KANSAS CITY.

The Hottest Weather Ever Known-Nine Fatalities Reported.

Kansas City, Mo., July 23 .- A verita ble hot blast literally scorched this city Monday, breaking all heat records in the history of the local weather bureau. Sunday, Kansas Cityans experienced the hottest weather ever known here, the government thermomter reaching 104 and remaining above the 100 mark for seven consecutive hours. Two dozen prostrations, nine fatally, was the result. Monday, at 3:30 o'clock the bureau thermometer at the highest point in the city, showed 106 degrees, while thermometers in the business district on the streets reached as high as 128. The thermometer, at 8 a. m., regisp. m. broke the record at 104.6. Hardly a breath of air stirred. The suffering was intense, especially among persons compelled to work out doors and in the poor districts in the bottoms. Seven deaths from prostrations were reported during the day trial of his brother, Robert S. The action of the Ohio democrats in their state convention means somebetween the local bosses, McLean got national politics. We say apparent, industriously or quit playing. for there is much in Tom Johnson's and there is something in it which he has favored. The demagogic and futile assault on the trusts which the Ohio democrats made has been made frequently by Bryan, for it represents his rejected the plan to reaffirm the Kansas City platform, the chief point of objection to that deliverance, of course, being its silver plank. The convention itself took pains to scorn and deride Bryan personally in trampling on the banner containing his portrait.

Warfare has been inevitable between the Bryan and anti-Bryan factions of the democracy in 1904 in any event. The first skirmish in that war took place in the convention at Columbus, and the anti-Bryanites won. The same section of the democracy which dictated that party's municipal ticket in Ohio convention, with this difference. have been favored by the municipal own- hand. ership people of St. Louis, who opposed the regular democratic ticket here.
